Bank/Riverside – [REDACTED] advised that group leader was confirming that they were planning to let vehicles leave and return home. Some people were not in favour of this and chose to lay down on the street in front of cars. [REDACTED] engaged with leader and educated on fracture in group and the liability for this as there are children in the cars, people wanting to leave. While engaged with the leader, an ESU Sgt interrupted and took over the conversation from [REDACTED] [REDACTED] standing by monitoring.

First Nation Protocol Violations

First Nation territorial protocols are s. 35 rights, as are First Nation rules of law, and are therefore enforceable. Accordingly, they must be respected and followed by everyone who enters any First Nation traditional territory whether it's aboriginal title or treaty territory.

This past week, people representing themselves as supposed authorized First Nation representatives, without permission from the Algonquin Nation leadership, have been performing sacred ceremonies in Algonquin territory in support of the Freedom Convoy. Not only are they in violation of the permission protocol, they are supporting the ill-conceived Freedom Convoy which is now probably an illegal occupation and not a protest.

Organizers of the Freedom Convoy organizers have co-opted many people, including people representing themselves as duly authorized First Nation people representatives into supporting their questionable anti-vaccine and measures cause. Vaccine mandates are necessary and have overwhelming support from Canada's medical, scientific and general population. The Freedom Convoy will not and should not get the result it is protesting about, an end to vaccine mandates and other preventative measures for the spread of the Covid virus.

By this social media piece, I am suggesting all First Nation leaders from all organizations and each First Nation to communicate their condemnation of the inappropriate behavior of the people who are representing themselves as authorized First Nation representatives in support of the Freedom Convoy. They are entitled to support the Freedom Convoy, but not through the use of unauthorized sacred traditional ceremonies.

With much respect,

Via OPS PLT- Spoke to Jason Vanderwie. No idea of planning from Freedom Convoy to move trucks to Wellington. Advised has a command centre where he attends meetings everyday as block captain for Wellington but none of the Freedom Convoy organizers are at his meetings. Would not share his command structure.

Dubois- PLT just got info that OPS towing a vehicle at Rideau/Sussex. And possibly enforcing Jerry cans

PLT had liaised with Rideau/Sussex messaging that light enforcement would not be done today ie Jerry cans

This could jeopardize PLT efforts as good dialogue had just been had

Peace- Release Royal Canadian Legion National Executive Director Steven Clark-

The Royal Canadian Legion believes the best way to ensure the National War Memorial site remains protected from disrespectful activities, is to have the barriers replaced. We would like to see official police personnel stationed there to ensure it remains safe.

We know many of the individuals who would like to offer protection mean well, and some may be Veterans, however they do not have official policing authority to keep the peace at the memorial. We would not want to see them involved in confrontational situations that could result in injury to themselves or anyone else.

For these reasons we'd like to see the site secured once again with barriers, accompanied by authorized personnel

We appreciate having the opportunity to share our view with you.

Dubois- PLT just got info that OPS towing a vehicle at Rideau/Sussex. And possibly enforcing Jerry cans

PLT had liaised with Rideau/Sussex messaging that light enforcement would not be done today ie Jerry cans

This could jeopardize PLT efforts as good dialogue had just been had

Dubois- PLT contacted Quebec CL did not have info on who was moving. Said they were waiting on the response from Ottawa City if the agreement was a go.

They had not sorted out on who was relocating where and who was going home.

Will contact Tamara Lich and get back to PLT.

 Peace- Release Royal Canadian Legion National Executive Director Steven Clark-

The Royal Canadian Legion believes the best way to ensure the National War Memorial site remains protected from disrespectful activities, is to have the barriers replaced. We would like to see official police personnel stationed there to ensure it remains safe.

We know many of the individuals who would like to offer protection mean well, and some may be Veterans, however they do not have official policing authority to keep the peace at the memorial. We would not want to see them involved in confrontational situations that could result in injury to themselves or anyone else.

For these reasons we'd like to see the site secured once again with barriers, accompanied by authorized personnel

We appreciate having the opportunity to share our view with you.

Dubois- PLT just got info that OPS towing a vehicle at Rideau/Sussex. And possibly enforcing Jerry cans

PLT had liaised with Rideau/Sussex messaging that light enforcement would not be done today ie Jerry cans

This could jeopardize PLT efforts as good dialogue had just been had

Via OPS PLT- PLT spoke to block captain Chris Meeks Kent street between Gloucester and Nepean and the block south on Kent). No knowledge of letter and plan for reducing footprint. Advised would have to speak to his block family and allow time for convoy leaders to reach out to him. Meek advised not really associated to greater demo and their leadership. No interest in repositioning closer to Parliament Hill or leaving.

 Peace- Release Royal Canadian Legion National Executive Director Steven Clark-

The Royal Canadian Legion believes the best way to ensure the National War Memorial site remains protected from disrespectful activities, is to have the barriers replaced. We would like to see official police personnel stationed there to ensure it remains safe.

We know many of the individuals who would like to offer protection mean well, and some may be Veterans, however they do not have official policing authority to keep the peace at the memorial. We would not want to see them involved in confrontational situations that could result in injury to themselves or anyone else.

For these reasons we'd like to see the site secured once again with barriers, accompanied by authorized personnel

We appreciate having the opportunity to share our view with you.

Dubois- PLT just got info that OPS towing a vehicle at Rideau/Sussex. And possibly enforcing Jerry cans

PLT had liaised with Rideau/Sussex messaging that light enforcement would not be done today ie Jerry cans

This could jeopardize PLT efforts as good dialogue had just been had

Peace- Release Royal Canadian Legion National Executive Director Steven Clark-

The Royal Canadian Legion believes the best way to ensure the National War Memorial site remains protected from disrespectful activities, is to have the barriers replaced. We would like to see official police personnel stationed there to ensure it remains safe.

We know many of the individuals who would like to offer protection mean well, and some may be Veterans, however they do not have official policing authority to keep the peace at the memorial. We would not want to see them involved in confrontational situations that could result in injury to themselves or anyone else.

For these reasons we'd like to see the site secured once again with barriers, accompanied by authorized personnel

We appreciate having the opportunity to share our view with you.

Dubois- PLT just got info that OPS towing a vehicle at Rideau/Sussex. And possibly enforcing Jerry cans

PLT had liaised with Rideau/Sussex messaging that light enforcement would not be done today ie Jerry cans

This could jeopardize PLT efforts as good dialogue had just been had

Dubois- PLT contacted Quebec CL did not have info on who was moving. Said they were waiting on the response from Ottawa City if the agreement was a go.

They had not sorted out on who was relocating where and who was going home.

Will contact Tamara Lich and get back to PLT.

Peace- Release Royal Canadian Legion National Executive Director Steven Clark-

The Royal Canadian Legion believes the best way to ensure the National War Memorial site remains protected from disrespectful activities, is to have the barriers replaced. We would like to see official police personnel stationed there to ensure it remains safe.

We know many of the individuals who would like to offer protection mean well, and some may be Veterans, however they do not have official policing authority to keep the peace at the memorial. We would not want to see them involved in confrontational situations that could result in injury to themselves or anyone else.

For these reasons we'd like to see the site secured once again with barriers, accompanied by authorized personnel

We appreciate having the opportunity to share our view with you.

Dubois- PLT just got info that OPS towing a vehicle at Rideau/Sussex. And possibly enforcing Jerry cans
PLT had liaised with Rideau/Sussex messaging that light enforcement would not be done today ie Jerry cans
This could jeopardize PLT efforts as good dialogue had just been had

Dubois- PLT contacted Quebec CL did not have info on who was moving. Said they were waiting on the response from Ottawa City if the agreement was a go.

They had not sorted out on who was relocating where and who was going home.

Will contact Tamara Lich and get back to PLT.

Peace- Release Royal Canadian Legion National Executive Director Steven Clark-

The Royal Canadian Legion believes the best way to ensure the National War Memorial site remains protected from disrespectful activities, is to have the barriers replaced. We would like to see official police personnel stationed there to ensure it remains safe.

We know many of the individuals who would like to offer protection mean well, and some may be Veterans, however they do not have official policing authority to keep the peace at the memorial. We would not want to see them involved in confrontational situations that could result in injury to themselves or anyone else.

For these reasons we'd like to see the site secured once again with barriers, accompanied by authorized personnel

We appreciate having the opportunity to share our view with you.

Dubois- PLT just got info that OPS towing a vehicle at Rideau/Sussex. And possibly enforcing Jerry cans
PLT had liaised with Rideau/Sussex messaging that light enforcement would not be done today ie Jerry cans
This could jeopardize PLT efforts as good dialogue had just been had

Dubois- PLT contacted Quebec CL did not have info on who was moving. Said they were waiting on the response from Ottawa City if the agreement was a go.

They had not sorted out on who was relocating where and who was going home.

Will contact Tamara Lich and get back to PLT.

Peace- Release Royal Canadian Legion National Executive Director Steven Clark-

The Royal Canadian Legion believes the best way to ensure the National War Memorial site remains protected from disrespectful activities, is to have the barriers replaced. We would like to see official police personnel stationed there to ensure it remains safe.

We know many of the individuals who would like to offer protection mean well, and some may be Veterans, however they do not have official policing authority to keep the peace at the memorial. We would not want to see them involved in confrontational situations that could result in injury to themselves or anyone else.

For these reasons we'd like to see the site secured once again with barriers, accompanied by authorized personnel

We appreciate having the opportunity to share our view with you.

Dubois- PLT just got info that OPS towing a vehicle at Rideau/Sussex. And possibly enforcing Jerry cans

PLT had liaised with Rideau/Sussex messaging that light enforcement would not be done today ie Jerry cans

This could jeopardize PLT efforts as good dialogue had just been had

Dubois- PLT contacted Quebec CL did not have info on who was moving. Said they were waiting on the response from Ottawa City if the agreement was a go.

They had not sorted out on who was relocating where and who was going home.

Will contact Tamara Lich and get back to PLT.

Peace- Release Royal Canadian Legion National Executive Director Steven Clark-

The Royal Canadian Legion believes the best way to ensure the National War Memorial site remains protected from disrespectful activities, is to have the barriers replaced. We would like to see official police personnel stationed there to ensure it remains safe.

We know many of the individuals who would like to offer protection mean well, and some may be Veterans, however they do not have official policing authority to keep the peace at the memorial. We would not want to see them involved in confrontational situations that could result in injury to themselves or anyone else.

For these reasons we'd like to see the site secured once again with barriers, accompanied by authorized personnel

We appreciate having the opportunity to share our view with you.

Dubois- PLT just got info that OPS towing a vehicle at Rideau/Sussex. And possibly enforcing Jerry cans

PLT had liaised with Rideau/Sussex messaging that light enforcement would not be done today ie Jerry cans

This could jeopardize PLT efforts as good dialogue had just been had

Dubois- PLT contacted Quebec CL did not have info on who was moving. Said they were waiting on the response from Ottawa City if the agreement was a go.

They had not sorted out on who was relocating where and who was going home.

Will contact Tamara Lich and get back to PLT.

Peace- Release Royal Canadian Legion National Executive Director Steven Clark-

The Royal Canadian Legion believes the best way to ensure the National War Memorial site remains protected from disrespectful activities, is to have the barriers replaced. We would like to see official police personnel stationed there to ensure it remains safe.

We know many of the individuals who would like to offer protection mean well, and some may be Veterans, however they do not have official policing authority to keep the peace at the memorial. We would not want to see them involved in confrontational situations that could result in injury to themselves or anyone else.

For these reasons we'd like to see the site secured once again with barriers, accompanied by authorized personnel

We appreciate having the opportunity to share our view with you.

Dubois- PLT just got info that OPS towing a vehicle at Rideau/Sussex. And possibly enforcing Jerry cans

PLT had liaised with Rideau/Sussex messaging that light enforcement would not be done today ie Jerry cans
This could jeopardize PLT efforts as good dialogue had just been had

Dubois- PLT contacted Quebec CL did not have info on who was moving. Said they were waiting on the response from Ottawa City if the agreement was a go.
They had not sorted out on who was relocating where and who was going home.
Will contact Tamara Lich and get back to PLT.

Peace- Release Royal Canadian Legion National Executive Director Steven Clark-

The Royal Canadian Legion believes the best way to ensure the National War Memorial site remains protected from disrespectful activities, is to have the barriers replaced. We would like to see official police personnel stationed there to ensure it remains safe.

We know many of the individuals who would like to offer protection mean well, and some may be Veterans, however they do not have official policing authority to keep the peace at the memorial. We would not want to see them involved in confrontational situations that could result in injury to themselves or anyone else.

For these reasons we'd like to see the site secured once again with barriers, accompanied by authorized personnel

We appreciate having the opportunity to share our view with you.

Dubois- PLT just got info that OPS towing a vehicle at Rideau/Sussex. And possibly enforcing Jerry cans
PLT had liaised with Rideau/Sussex messaging that light enforcement would not be done today ie Jerry cans
This could jeopardize PLT efforts as good dialogue had just been had

Dubois- PLT contacted Quebec CL did not have info on who was moving. Said they were waiting on the response from Ottawa City if the agreement was a go.
They had not sorted out on who was relocating where and who was going home.
Will contact Tamara Lich and get back to PLT.

OTTAWA -- Truck Demonstration

SITUATION -- The area of operations was originally identified by Ottawa Police Service to be in the downtown core in the area of Parliament Hill in the City of Ottawa. As the trucks arrived on the weekend of the 28th, 29th and 30th of January, operators immediately began flooding the core from multiple directions off the 417. The sheer volume in combination with the multiple options to enter the city made it impossible to fully control their movements. All attempts were made using police resources, heavy barricades and heavy equipment to maintain routes open for emergency response to the residents and businesses as much as possible.

MISSION -- Using an integrated response, the Ottawa Police and policing partners will keep the peace, enforce legislation, and maintain public safety for the duration of the Ottawa Truck Demonstration, with the utmost respect to the individuals Charter of Rights and Freedoms with priority on community and emergency services personnel safety and well-being.

EXECUTION -- MAIN ACTION PLAN -- To de-escalate and negotiate the peaceful resolution and demobilization of the truck demonstration. We recognize that there has been significant public pressure to end the demonstration. We are also aware of the high risk, and volatile crowd that officers on the ground are dealing with. I want to remind all officers engaged in and around the demonstration that you have full discretion to take appropriate action on any offences as laid out in various legislation and orders, but when possible consultation with your command would be recommended given the dynamics of the situation we're in.
